SCHEDULE: (waiting for schedule dates)

High point regattas

- Midwinters, 19-20 Feb, (This may only be a one day race)
- NOOD, 18-20 Mar, three days, 7 races
- Yachting Cup, 30-Apr, 1 may
- Newport to San Diego Race, date to be determined, (July 30?)

From June-Oct, there are one-design weekends. One month will be the Newport-San Diego race (July). One month will be a fun race (no spins, no poles) to either Coronado YC or Coronado Cays YC for lunch and return. Racing OD weekends will be Saturdays only. One Saturday race, (non-highpoint), the crews would be chosen by lottery among the boats.

Which weekends should be OD for highpoint? June?, Sept?, Oct?, other?

What weekend for the fun race? Armando, would you please check with your YC, and see if we can have a Sat raft up at your dock with lunch. Thanks.

Highpoint will be best 75% of races.

The championship regatta will be organized with the 36.7's and Southwestern Yacht Sales. This regatta is the BIG regatta of the year, and is not part of the hi-point. Dates are yet to be determined.

Web Site

The web site will include a crew sign up and people will be able to sign up for crew positions. Peter is going to help Gary get a crew list database going with open signup.

ITEMS DISCUSSED, but no actions.

- Crew training – Other than crew lottery, what should happen here?
- Tuning Day
